

PICASSO COWS SCORE CARD

Thank you for participating in this year's Picasso Cows program. We hope your students had fun and enjoyed their dairy discovery journey. This score card assess your school's performance based on the judging rubric. The overall assessment of the program is split into two tasks:

Assessment Task One: Designing and decorating the cow

Assessment Task Two: Creating the Learning Journal

PHOENIX PRIMARY SCHOOL SCORE CARD

Assessment Task One: Designing and decorating the cow

Visual and aesthetic appeal - Picasso Cow is creative, original and unique. Ideas are presented in an inventive manner	4/5
Command of media techniques - Attention to detail, appropriateness, and overall effort	4/5
Evidence of the dairy-related theme visible and corresponding learning from the design	4/5
Provides evidence of how the dairy industry raises and calves, produces, processes and delivers milk, and manages the environment sustainably.	4/5
Finished product expresses cohesiveness of the intended dairy story told	4/5
Subtotal	20

Assessment Task Two: Creating the school learning journal

Learning journey told through photography, multimedia and reflections	4/5
Evidence of dairy-related theme in student learnings	4/5
Use of content and supporting resources on the Discover Dairy website by participating students	5/5
Evidence of research and understanding about the sustainable things the dairy industry does to raise cows and calves, produce, process and deliver milk, and manage the environment sustainably.	5/5
Evidence of teamwork	4/5
Subtotal	22
Total score	42/50

